

2019 MAISON L'ENVOYÉ MOULIN-à-VENT

Review Summary

91 pts “Bright violet. Ripe, spice-accented cherry, cassis, pungent flowers and a hint of licorice on the perfumed nose. Juicy and lively on the palate, where bitter cherry and black currant flavors deepen and spread out slowly with air. Dusty tannins contribute shape and grip to a long, sappy finish that echoes the cherry and licorice notes.”

Josh Raynolds
Vinous
August 24, 2021

90 pts “This polished, herb-laced red shows fruit flavors of wild raspberry and currant mixed with white pepper, graphite and tea. Charming, with balance and freshness.”

Gillian Sciaretta
Wine Spectator
October 31, 2021