

2015 MAISON L'ENVOYÉ STRAIGHT SHOOTER PINOT NOIR

Review Summary

90 pts/Smart Buy “The name Straight Shooter describes this wine to a T. Without a lot of fuss, it offers floral strawberry aromas and crisp yet velvet cherry and spicy cinnamon flavors that glide delicately on the finish.”

Tim Fish
Wine Spectator
Jan. 31 – Feb. 28, 2018

90 pts “Deep red. Lively aromas of red currant, strawberry and allspice carry a suave floral topnote. Seamless and sharply focused; spice-tinged red berry and bitter cherry flavors become sweeter with air. Closes on a strong red berry note, displaying very good clarity and smooth, harmonious tannins that lend gentle grip.”

Josh Raynolds
Vinous
January 2018

90 pts “Plush and elegant, with floral strawberry aromas and crisp yet velvety cherry and spicy cinnamon flavors that glide delicately on the finish.”

Tim Fish
WineSpectator.com
2018

89 pts “Pale ruby-purple colored, the 2015 Straight Shooter is redolent of crushed raspberries and wild strawberries with hints of tree bark, cinnamon stick and Sichuan pepper. Light to medium-bodied, it has bags of character and styling at this very humble price point, offering pleasantly chewy tannins and savory flavors plus appealing harmony.”

Lisa Perrotti-Brown
Robert Parker's Wine Advocate
August 2017