

2014 MAISON L'ENVOYÉ FLEURIE

Review Summary

92 pts “Deep ruby. Aromas of fresh dark berries and incense, complicated by smoke and allspice accents. Silky and broad on entry, then more taut in the midpalate, offering juicy black raspberry and bitter cherry flavors and a touch of candied flowers. Shows appealing sweetness on the long, incisive finish, which features harmonious tannins and a late jolt of licorice pastille.”

Josh Raynolds
Vinous
August 2016

91 pts – Best Buy “Generous and firm from the first taste, this wine rides its youthful energy over concentrated tannins, mingling rose scents with notes of pepper and mustard seed. You could decant this now to serve with a salad of bitter greens and seared chicken liver, or cellar it to let the tannins soften.”

Joshua Greene
Wine & Spirits Magazine
October 2016

88 pts “Wild raspberry and currant notes are edged by zesty acidity and grilled herb flavors in this light- to medium-bodied red. Subtle tannins show on the tangy finish.”

Gillian Sciarretta
Wine Spectator
December 31, 2016