

2016 MAISON L'ENVOYÉ FLEURIE

Review Summary

93 pts “Bright magenta. Highly perfumed red berry and floral scents are complemented by suggestions of exotic spices and smoky minerals. Sweet and penetrating in the mouth, offering raspberry liqueur and floral pastille flavors that show outstanding clarity and a core of juicy acidity. In a seamless, energetic style, displaying a deft balance of power and finesse and finishing sweet and very long, with repeating florality and no rough edges.”

Josh Reynolds
Vinous
October 2019