

2018 MAISON L'ENVOYÉ TWO MESSENGERS

CONSULTING WINEMAKER: Louis-Michel Liger-Belair
REGION: Willamette Valley, Oregon
VARIETALS: Pinot Noir
Clones: Pommard/114/115/777/Wadensvil/667
MATURATION: 12 months in 100% French oak (25% new)
ANALYSIS: 14.1% alc/vol | TA: 5.4 g/L | pH: 3.65

VINTAGE:

Spring was relatively cool and wet with bud break happening slightly later than the last few years. A warmer than average summer caught things up. Veraison was early and the hot weather continued, accelerated ripening until a cool change in September gave the grapes a needed respite. The cooler temperatures allowed the slow development of flavors until harvest. Overall 2018 is looking to be a very sound vintage.

AVAs & VINEYARDS:

Eola Amity - Eagle Crest, Eola Springs, Popcorn
McMinnville - Hyland
Willamette Valley - Croft
Yamhill Carlton - Fairsing, Gran Moraine, Stardance

WINEMAKING:

The fruit was 100% destemmed and underwent an indigenous ferment in two and five-ton stainless steel open top tanks. The grapes were "infused" as whole berries at a moderate temperature, in an oxygen rich environment until pressed. The wine then matured in 100% French oak barriques (25% new) for 12 months.

TASTING NOTES:

The nose is a vibrant mixture of red berries, rhubarb, vanilla essence and clove. Crunchy cranberries and vibrant purple fruits fill the palate and are complemented by a savory truffle nuance. The palate is opulent but focused and the wine feels alive throughout its impressive length.

CRITICAL ACCLAIM: 93 pts - JamesSuckling.com

ABOUT MAISON L'ENVOYÉ:

Driven by a tireless hunt for elusive sites where Pinot Noir shines, Maison L'Envoyé, 'The House of the Messenger' traverses the globe with the intention of presenting the acme of regionality and winemaking styles. With winemaking footprints in Burgundy, Willamette Valley, California, Central Otago and Tasmania, we champion many unsung growers who have farmed their vineyards for decades and generations, some mere feet away from more illustriously cited neighbors. This project has been a standout since our debut in 2011 including Wine & Spirits naming Maison L'Envoyé a 'Winery To Watch' in 2015.
